SECURING THE ABBAY'S MUSIC FOR FUTURE GENERATIONS

www.tewbkesburyabbey.org.uk/foundation

Music plays an integral role in the Abbey's life and worship. Our choirs enrich the daily services and provide joy to thousands at the Abbey's carol services. Generations of young people have benefited, and continue to benefit, from the musical life and education the Abbey provides.

Music at the Abbey costs £150,000 a year and we receive no regular financial support from the government or Church of England.

The Foundation is raising funds to secure the Abbey's music for future generations, and to extend the outreach and education opportunities provided through the musical life of the Abbey.

Tewkesbury Abbey Foundation (registered charity: 1187090)

Supporting the Abbey's music and English Choral tradition

Tewkesbury Abbey Choir

A voluntary choir of children and adults which sings the Eucharist and Choral Evensong on Sundays.

Tewkesbury Abbey Schola Cantorum

A professional choir with 20 boy and girl choristers and lay clerks which sings Choral Evensong during the week.

Musica Deo Sacra

Singers from cathedral, collegiate and recital choirs come together at the Abbey for a week-long festival of liturgy and music each summer.

Milton and Grove Organs

The Abbey has two fine 4-manual organs.

The Milton organ is an historic instrument, built originally in 1631 for Magdalen College, Oxford. Briefly in the possession of Oliver Cromwell at Hampton Court Palace, it was reputedly played by the poet John Milton. Purchased for the Abbey in 1737, it was rebuilt and reconstructed by Kenneth Jones with mechanical action and 68 speaking stops in 1997, and remains the Abbey's main instrument.

The Grove organ is a wonderful Victorian instrument built by Michel and Thynne in 1885 which was purchased for the Abbey by Revd C.W. Grove in 1887 to commemorate Queen Victoria's Golden Jubilee.
